Dominique Bivar Segurado ARBS

Welcome,

This year has gone so fast! I've been working on two large projects, firstly writing my commissioned handbook on Wall Piece Ceramics for A&C Black publishers whilst also studying and completing a Masters Degree at the University of East Anglia.

I hope you enjoy my newsletter as it will give you an update on my creative practice, forthcoming events, commissions and general information. Please note I have moved studios, details enclosed.

If you feel inspired and captivated by the work and wish to discuss a commission or project please don't hesitate to contact me as I will be pleased to talk through any small or large scale projects.

'Wall pieces' book commission, A& C Black Publishers.

Mid November will see the release of my handbook 'Wall pieces' published by A&C Black. The handbook is an illustrated guide on ceramic wall pieces, involving a fantastic collection of ceramic artists such as Piet Stockmans, Christie Brown, Henry Moore, Jim Robison, myself and many more makers from all over the world. The book can be purchased on Amazon or purchased from A& C Black. Please note if purchase the handbook directly for A&C Black www.acblack.com you will receive a 25% discount. It will make a great Christmas present for the ceramics lover in your life!!

A new collection of my embossed prints and new sculpture created for my MA will be on display at the prestigious law firm Allen & Overy.

House and Garden

The September issue of House and Garden saw a double feature of my ceramic bowls. I would like to thank House and Garden for the interesting feature.

New Arrival

December will see the new arrival of our baby and the following five months will be taken as maternity leave. However, please do remain in contact if you wish to discuss a future project or exhibition opportunity.

Masters in Creative Entrepreneurship

After having just completed a year of study on Masters programme at the University of East Anglia and who have strong connections with the Jerwood foundation, London. I have experienced a wealth of lectures from a diverse range of Creative Arts professionals from across the UK all of which have supported and strengthen my own creative practice.

New- The master course has lead to experiment with a new material, acrylic image on left. On show at Allen & Overy, E1!
